Oliver and Richard will expand on the theme of Place-names, recently explored in the HFC promoted publication of “Place Names of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight”, by Alfred Oscroft. Dr Oliver Padel, formerly Reader in Cornish and Celtic in the Department of Anglo-Saxon, Norse and Celtic, University of Cambridge, will consider the different words used for different types of site (in honour of the contribution to this topic made by Crawford himself in 1924); and, second, the names given to sites by modern archaeologists. Richard Coates, Professor of Linguistics at the University of the West of England, Bristol, will offer a more Hampshire specific perspective covering names of archaeological sites in Hampshire

Parking is available at the Berewecke Road entrance and at the Owen’s Road entrance.
