The following have been elected as Members for 1907 :—

Kent, G. G., Columbia, Brookvale Road, Southampton
 Morgan, Miss, Shawford, Winchester

Errors or omissions in the above list should be notified to the General Secretary, Mr. W. Dale, F.S.A.

The excursions commenced in May under somewhat new conditions as indicated in the last Annual Report. They were in all ten, as follows :—

At Wimborne, May 10th. At Southampton Common on Court Leet Day, May 16th, At Thorness Bay, Isle of Wight, specially for Geology, on May 30th. At Bishops Sutton, Warnford, and East Meon, on June 27th. At Mottisfont for Nature Study on July 4th. At Avebury, on July 27th. At Holmesley and Milton for Nature Study, on August 2nd. At Farnham Castle, Moor Park and Waverley Abbey, on August 22nd. Around Basingstoke, on September 26th, and at Highwood, Romsey, on October 18th, in celebration of the Nelson Centenary.

That the success and interest of the meetings have been maintained, is, we believe, the verdict of the members. The Secretary desires to thank very heartily the Local Secretaries and the Rev. G. W. Minns, F.S.A., for their valuable co-operation in arranging the meetings, and without whose assistance they could not have been attended with so much success.

The three meetings to fresh places outside the border of the County were much appreciated, and great interest was taken in three meetings held for Nature Study. The meeting at Highwood, Romsey, during the week of the Nelson Centenary celebration was an appropriate finish to the Season, the host and hostess on that occasion, as is well-known, having family relations with the great naval hero, and possessing many objects of interest connected with his career.

The Committee beg to tender their respectful thanks to the Rev. T. H. Masters, Vicar of East Meon : Mr. Montagu Edwards, of Mottisfont ; the Rev. J. E. Kelsall, Rector of New Milton ; and to Capt. Thos. Suckling, R.N., and Mrs. Suckling, of Highwood, for their kind reception and hospitable entertainment given to the Society.

ANNUAL REPORT.

Read at Winchester, May 3rd, 1906.

As it is the custom of the Committee to preface their Annual Report by a reference to well known members who have been removed by death during the year, it becomes their sad duty to mention the great loss the Hampshire Field Club and Archæological Society and all lovers of antiquity have sustained by the death of the late Lord Montagu of Beaulieu.

Lord Montagu was a member of the Club for more than sixteen years. His interest in Archæology was great, and his residence, as well as the grounds of Beaulieu Abbey, were always readily opened to those interested in them.

In the year 1890, on the day that he celebrated his silver wedding, he received a party of members of the Club to the number of more than eighty. When the Royal Archæological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland held its Annual Meeting in Southampton in 1902, Lord Montagu was President, and his services in connection with the Loan Exhibition of Local Antiquities held in Southampton in 1904 will be fresh in the recollection of all who were associated with that undertaking or who took part in the meetings.

Death has also removed Colonel Chas. Cornish, of Southampton, a most regular and appreciative attendant at the meetings, who will be greatly missed. Quite recently the Club has also lost Mr. W. R. S. Griffith, J.P., of Eyreworth Lodge, Lyndhurst, who twice received the Club at his residence, and contributed to an early volume of the Proceedings an interesting paper on Gipsy Life in the New Forest.
